Pilgrimage to the Southern Border 2024

Lodging in Green Valley, Arizona Canoa Ranch Golf Resort

Thirty miles south of Tucson in the community of Green Valley and a 10-minute drive from the Good Shepherd Church is the Canoa Ranch Golf Resort offering us a beautiful place to relax at night and between our activities at Commonground on the Border. The three-building complex is spacious with multiple options for rooming accommodations. There is an exercise area, outdoor heated swimming pool, indoor and outdoor spaces for solitude as well as gathering. Breakfast is included with our stay with made to order hot dishes. Across the road at the golf course is a lovely restaurant open for lunch, dinner, and snacks. The management there has been impressive, helping me to price lodging for this pilgrimage to meet a variety of needs. She has blocked rooms for us until December, so our reservations need to be confirmed by the beginning of that month. There are a couple of standard 1-queen-bed rooms; lots of 2-queen-bed rooms; as well as 1-King suites and 2-room-suites with a king in one and 2 queen beds in the other.

'Lots of choices; here are the rates for five nights including tax per person!

Standard room 1Queen or Standard room 2 Queens:

1person/$852. 2people/$426ea. 3p/$284ea. 4p/$213ea

The Suites are actually condominiums with full kitchen, dining area, living room, spacious patio, and bathrooms paired w each room. These would provide options in which to fix some meals.

One-bedroom Suite with one king bed: $1165.90 per room

2persons pay $582.95ea

Two-bedroom Suites with a King room and a two-queen-bed room

4persons/$419.50ea. 5p/$352.50ea. 6p/$307ea
